

The Value of Peer Mentoring

Presented by the Jacksonville Women's Business Center's Emerging Markets Initiative

Thursday, July 21st ~ 5:30-7:30 p.m.

The Party Place

2156 Park Avenue #1, Orange Park, FL 32073

This program is FREE but an RSVP is required

RSVP: <http://tinyurl.com/EM72116>

Donations to the Emerging Markets Initiative are encouraged (and tax deductible!)

Includes: Light refreshments, program and door prizes (must be present to win)

Join us to network and explore the value of peer mentoring to help you and your business succeed.

Meet the ladies who facilitate JWBC's peer mentoring programs and hear from women, just like you, who participate in these programs. Learn first hand about the value of bonding and sharing with a group of women business owners facing the same challenges you face every day.

Facilitators:

Joan Bonnette, SCORE – Jacksonville – Joan is a retired marketing professional who dedicates herself to helping women business owners build strong, successful companies. Joan volunteers with SCORE, an organization of retired CEOs who provide free counseling and training to small business owners. Joan supports the Jacksonville Women's Business Center's outreach Success Circles in Clay and St. John's Counties

Barbara Tolliver Haskins, Executive Coaching Solutions - Barbara was a successful executive for a multi-billion dollar corporation in the financial services industry. Today, she is the owner of Executive Coaching Solutions, providing professional assistance to companies and individuals. Barbara presents workshops and supports the Executive and Leadership Success Circles for the Jacksonville Women's Business Center.

Thank you for supporting Emerging Markets programming

Media Sponsors

The Emerging Markets Initiative promotes diversity and inclusion among Northeast Florida's women business owners supported by the Jacksonville Women's Business Center (JWBC). All Women entrepreneurs -- aspiring or existing-- of all ethnicities are welcome to attend Emerging Markets events.